

About VIPS

The VIPS program began in 1982 as way to involve the community in the education of Falmouth students. That remains the focus of the program today, through the involvement of 1,100 volunteers whose efforts are distributed district-wide in classrooms, arts/music/literature/science programs, motivated and talented programs, mentoring, and athletics. VIPS volunteers provide the schools with an organized, reliable volunteer corps whose efforts supplement and enrich the curriculum. Volunteers are given the opportunity to use their time, talents, and energy in creative and worthwhile ways. Each year, volunteers log over 40,000 hours while supporting students, faculty, administration, and the community.
